Scholarships available

Full-time employees of Asbury Towers are eligible to apply for scholarship assistance for skills enhancement so they may provide quality care and services for our residents.

Asbury Towers will offer a maximum of $3,000 for full-time employees during a calendar year. Education may include work toward a degree or certification completion that is job-related, including college credit courses, education unit courses, seminars and certification tests.

Since 2022, the fund has provided financial assistance to staff members who desire to advance their careers. To date a total of $10,668.90 has been awarded to 13 employees for CNA, QMA, CPR, and dietary certifications and food service training. A scholarship has just been awarded to a staff member to attend CNA classes in August!

For more information, see Kris in Human Resources.

To contribute to the scholarship fund, contact the Asbury Towers Office.
